There will be no license at the Pequot inn, New London, now without a license through the disqualification by the county commissioners of the former proprietor, George T. Salter. Friday morning a dozen of the more prominent residents of the Pequot colony assembled at the court house to vigorously oppose the granting of a city as a democrat. He was widely known and highly esteemed.

Mr. Bill was born April 16, 1852 it Lyme, Conn. He spent his early life on his father's farm in Lyme, and he only assembled at the court house to vigorously oppose the granting of a license to Carl Anderson, but Anderson falled to put in an appearance for the hearing or his application set for Friday morning at 10 o'clock before the county commissioners. The news has been received at Fort Mansfield that the present commanding officer, Lieut. J. S. Pratt, is relieved from commanding the 88th company and will proceed to Fort Monroe, Va. This is sad news to the men of his command, as he was well liked by them. Lieutenant Pratt has the company in fine shape for the new commanding officer. Lieutenant Pratt is like his father, General Sedgwick Pratt, who was refired after a very honorable and efficient service spent and became secretary, treasurer and general manager of the Springfield Knitting Co., where he remained until his death.

Mr. Bill was a member of the common council from 1882 until 1887, during which years he had the unanimous nomination of both parties. Only Real Hair Tonic.

Parisian Sage is the quick acting hair grower that can now be obtained in America and that is guaranteed by The Lee & Osgood Co. to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and ltching scaip in two weeks or money back.

Mrs. Johnson says:

"Parisian Sage is the only hair tonic that ever benefitted my hair. I began and used it duily for a while, afterwards I used it according to directions. I am absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scaip and hair, stop irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the growth of the hair, prevent baldness, and make the hair soft and sliky."—Mrs. Sue Johnson, 229 4th Street, Frankfort, Ky.

Parisian Sage is a most delicately perfumed hair dressing and has not a particle of stickiness or greasiness in it.

uriant hair that will attract and fas-cinate, should use Parlsian Sage. Lead-ing druggists everywhere sell it. The Lee & Osgood Co. sell it in Norwich for 50 cents a large bottle, and guaran-tees it to give satisfaction, or money back.
